

641—112.1(135) Purpose. The purpose of a statewide biological agent risk assessment is to protect the citizens of Iowa from exposure to biological agents which are or have the potential to be biological weapons. In order to protect the public health, the department is charged with identifying sources, locations, safety and security of select biological agents.